ROSS NOBLE

Simon Tolley

Adelaide Hills Syrah 2015 $35.

Fifth generation grapegrower Simon Tolley contends “great wine is made in the vineyard”. His syrah – so named for its clonal SA 1654 shiraz grapes – is from low yielding vines on the higher slopes of his vineyard at Woodside. The syrah is dense red in the glass and has dark plum and blueberry flavors with some black pepper and vanilla from French oak influence amid soft fine grained tannins, indicating good cellaring potential.
